

PEASANTS IN REVOLT; ARSON AND BLOODSHED

It is Estimated That Fully 200,000 Peasants are Armed.

Hundreds of Fine Estates are Destroyed---Insurgents Hold Much Territory.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 20.—Civil war is raging throughout a wide circle of country in European Russia.

The Lettish provinces in West Saratoff, and neighboring provinces in East Ekaterinovsk, and adjoining provinces on the South are ablaze with the fires of revolution.

Insurrectionists have resorted to firing the property of landowners, and it is estimated that at least thirteen hundred palatial mansions of estate holders have been burned to the ground.

The damage caused in this manner is estimated at a hundred million dollars.

The total number of armed peasants in open revolt against the government is estimated at two hundred thousand.

SOME OPPOSE

St. Petersburg, Dec. 20.—The immediately is meeting with opposition to the proposal to call a general strike. Many of the workmen do not believe that the present is the proper time to strike and are urging leaders to limit it to three days and make the strike simple.

FAMINE THREAT

Riga, Russia, Dec. 20.—Famine threatens to overtake the people in this city and surrounding districts and the prices of foodstuffs has risen to very high prices.

Big Strike Began At Noon.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 20.—A call for a general strike throughout Russia to begin Thursday noon was issued last night.

The call is approved by the union of unions, union of peasants, general railway union and councils of workingmen of St. Petersburg and Moscow.

The response received from railroad men of Moscow is unanimous for a strike.

The leaders have declared their ability to stop every railroad in Russia.

Final Struggle On.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 20.—A reign of terror has begun. The final struggle is on, the dynasty and the imperial government fighting desperately for existence, the people for freedom.

On Eve of Ballot.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 20.—Russia apparently is on the eve of a great if not final struggle for mastery between the government and proletariat. Both bodies have lined up for the battle.

Late yesterday afternoon all indications pointed to a declaration of war by the proletariat in the form of a summons for a complete general strike which will tie up railroads, telegraphs and every industry and business in the empire.

All the proletarian groups here have decided in favor of a general strike and news has been received that the workmen's council and allied bodies at Moscow have also pronounced in favor of it. The decision of the central committee of the railroad union at Moscow, without the support of which the other organizations probably will not risk battle, has not yet been received but it is known that delegates on the committee from St. Petersburg and the Baltic provinces favor the movement and the leaders here are confident that the radicals will carry the day.

Russia may again be cut off from the world, not only by wire, but by rail.

There is an air of suppressed excitement throughout the city. The streets have a regularly holiday appearance in honor of the emperor's name day and are crowded.

Batteries of machine guns are stationed at several points of vantage throughout the city and patrols of infantry and Cossacks are everywhere.

A specially heavy guard is stationed in the neighborhood of the Jewish market.

Services were held in all the churches yesterday and in every barracks the emperor orders for an increase of pay and of food was ready for the troops.

At Tsarskoe Selo the emperor reviewed the three guard regiments whose patrons are St. Nicholas. The review was made the occasion of a remarkable demonstration of fidelity to his majesty.

Face to Face With Bloodshed. St. Petersburg, Dec. 20.—We are now face to face with bloodshed. Of

GEORGE ROCK DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Summons Came About Midnight at His Home Here.

He Was 70 Years Old, Born in Germany, and Lived Here Since 1858.

WAS A VERY WEALTHY MAN.

Mr. George Rock, the retired shoe merchant and capitalist, and one of Paducah's oldest and most substantial citizens died at 11:50 o'clock last night at his home at Fifth and Monroe streets after an illness lasting a year or more, from kidney disease.

Mr. Rock was robust and energetic until his health began failing last year. He was ill then only at times, but several weeks ago he became so feeble that he could not leave his room, and for the past few weeks his condition had been regarded as hopeless.

Mr. Rock was conscious until a short time before death, and his entire family was about his bedside when the summons came.

The deceased was born in 1835 in Hesse Darmstadt, Germany, and was the second of three children born to John and Barbara Rock. His father died in the old country in 1848, and in 1849 his mother with the three children came to America and located in Cleveland, O. The three children were Elizabeth, George and John Rock, and the other two still reside there.

Mr. Rock served three years in Cleveland as a shoemaker apprentice, and then went to Louisville, Ky., where he remained until 1857. He was there married in 1856 to Miss Catherine Seigel, who died here ten years ago.

In 1858 Mr. Rock left Louisville and located at Lafayette, Christian county, but shortly afterward came to Paducah and entered upon the career which brought him wealth and honor.

As for those in the provinces, they are ours. They have shown us where we can get arms, as many as we want. When we have got the rifles they have arranged how we can conceal them. What matters St. Petersburg particularly? How can St. Petersburg hold out if the remainder of the country goes for us.

"Before we have settled upon whether we have to pay taxation on Jan. 9 or March 10," said he, "much blood will flow. The troops are ready and we are ready. The soldiers are with us all over the country. The guards here in St. Petersburg are faithful.

"As for those in the provinces, they are ours. They have shown us where we can get arms, as many as we want. When we have got the rifles they have arranged how we can conceal them. What matters St. Petersburg particularly? How can St. Petersburg hold out if the remainder of the country goes for us.

"When the decisive moment comes we shall be both organized and armed. This time we shall accept the government challenge and come out into the street, and I think our plan will be found to be such that the military will not care to face us.

"Bombs are plentiful and our forces are so distributed that everything will work together. This time there will be none of the foolishness of Jan. 9, but force will be met by force and discipline by equal discipline."

I. C. ENGINEER

Seriously Stabs a Fireman at Memphis, Tenn.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 20.—F. S. Williamson, a railroad fireman, is lying at St. Joseph's hospital dangerously wounded as the result of an altercation in which he was stabbed in the neck and probably fatally injured. A. B. Rogers, an engineer, did the stabbing and escaped shortly afterwards.

The trouble between Williamson and Rogers occurred in the office of the Illinois Central roundhouse shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Some words passed between them and then the two men resorted to blows. Finally Rogers seized his knife and inflicted an ugly wound in Williamson's neck.

Williamson's condition is reported as serious and some apprehension for his recovery is entertained.

Both the engineer and fireman run into Paducah, according to local railroad men, and both are well known here.

DOWIE IN BAD WAY.

He Cannot Sit or Stand—Left For Jamaica.

Boston, Dec. 20.—John Alexander Dowie was carefully carried aboard a steamer today and started for Jamaica in care of three trained nurses, and his son, Gladstone. He can neither sit nor stand, and lies in an invalid chair.

Big Hotel in Rome Burned.

Rome, Dec. 20.—The Grand Hotel Dela Paix was destroyed by fire this morning. Two hundred guests were in the hotel at the time but all escaped. Defective electric wires was the cause of the blaze.

Evangelical church on South Fifth. He was a member of Plain City Lodge, No. 449, Masons, and of the Royal Arch chapter of Masons, and of the Knights of Honor.

He leaves one son and seven daughters: Mr. John Rock, Mrs. John J. Bleich, Mrs. William F. Katerjohn, Mrs. Henry Mammen, Mrs. Jacob Seaman, Mrs. Edward Petter, Mrs. Henry Beyer, and Mrs. Georgia Beyer, the latter being widow of the late Gus Beyer.

Another thing that Mr. Rock had done was to aid many a young man to get a good start in the world. A number of the most successful young men of the city had their early training under Mr. Rock, particularly our shoe drummers.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, Rev. Bourquin, pastor of the German Evangelical church, officiating. Mr. Rock was a member of this church. It will be under the auspices of the Masons, and Past Grand Master James E. Wilhelm will officiate for the Masons.

The active pallbearers are to be Messrs. Ed. Woolfolk, Harry Hank, Fred Nagel, Louis Kolb, Jr., Andy Bauer and J. W. Beabout. The honor pallbearers are to be: Messrs. T. J. Atkins, Geo. Oehlschlaeger, Sr., Louis Kolb, Sr., Brack Owen, J. H. Bayer, J. H. Burnett, George Edwards and B. H. Scott.

M. & O. COUP

CLAIM TO HAVE ARRANGED FOR CHICAGO-NEW O. ROUTE.

It is Said to Be Via. Cairo, Illinois—Shorter Than the Illinois Central Route.

New Orleans, La., Dec. 20.—One of the greatest coups in railroad combinations in the south has been made public through the announcement by Colonel E. L. Russell, vice president of the Mobile and Ohio railroad, that his line had formed a traffic arrangement with the Big Four system, which would enable the Mobile and Ohio to run through trains from this city to Chicago, via, Cairo, Danville and Kankakee, Ill., over a route which, it is said, will be forty-two miles shorter than the Illinois Central between the same points.

The announcement will come as a complete surprise to railroad men all over the country and will give New Orleans another direct line with Chicago. There is every probability that as soon as the arrangement is put into effect, which will be sometime early in the year, a lively traffic will result between the new line and the Illinois Central, which has for so long had a practical monopoly of the New Orleans-Chicago direct business.

The Mobile and Ohio is to run both through fast passenger and freight trains between New Orleans and Chicago, and as the competition will be very strong, local railroad men look for a number of fast trains which will break all records to be inaugurated as soon as the passenger service is opened on the Mobile and Ohio.

His shoe business all these years grew, both wholesale and retail. He was industrious, honest and progressive to the right degree. As his business prospered he looked about for enterprises that were regarded as good and safe, and was always one of the leading citizens in progressive moves of all kinds. He was one of the organizers of the Paducah Furniture company, and at the time of his death was a big stockholder in the company, in the Paducah Water company, the Mayfield Water company and the Carbonado Coal company, of Carbondale, Ky., the Cohanhus company, the American-German National bank, and other concerns. He was regarded as a very wealthy man, probably being second to the wealthiest in Paducah. It is estimated that his estate is worth about $300,000.

His first residence in Paducah was in the small house at Jefferson street and the railroad crossing, in a triangular yard. Later he moved to Jefferson street between Fifth and Sixth, between Major Bloom's residence and that of the late Dr. Joe Thompson, and years ago erected his present home at Fifth and Monroe streets.

Several months ago when his health became so bad that he could not properly look after his business, he sold it to Messrs. Ed. Bringhurst and David Koger, who are now in charge of it under the same firm name.

Mr. Rock was always a public spirited citizen, and had probably done as much as any other one man for the upbuilding of the city. He had a time or two been asked to run for mayor, but did not desire to enter politics. He was always content to live a quiet, simple life, surrounded by his family and friends. He was a good Christian, and was one of the principal members of the German

Necessary to Dismiss Midshipman
From the Navy.

Washington, Dec. 20.—Attorney General Moody has rendered an opinion that no midshipman can be removed from the naval academy without process of court martial.

In view of this opinion Secretary Bonaparte has informed Chairman House and the senate naval committee he deemed it his duty to ask congress to immediately clothe the secretary of the navy with the power to dismiss any midshipman at any time whose presence at the academy is contrary to the best interests of the service.

BISHOP HOSS

Has Been Formally Invited to Memphis.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 20.—Bishop Hoss of Dallas, one of the foremost figures in Southern Methodism, is to be the recipient of a communication from the Merchants' Exchange, asking that he come to Memphis and establish his permanent home here.

At a meeting of the board of directors of that organization held yesterday afternoon, the resolution was offered by T. B. Andrews and was adopted unanimously.

EMERGENCY BILL IS DISPOSED OF

There Was Some Dispute Between the House and Senate.

The House Spends Its Time Debating the Subject of a Sixty Dollar Janitor.

AND INSURANCE IS DISCUSSED

Washington, Dec. 20.—The senate yesterday accepted the report of the committee on the Panama canal emergency appropriation bill and thus so far as it is concerned, finally disposed of that measure. The acceptance of the report was preceded by a brief discussion of the restoration of the bond provision to the appropriation bill and of the action of the house in resenting the senate's action in separating these two questions. Speeches were made by Aldrich, Spooner and Teller, all expressing the opinion the senate had not contravened the constitutional provision requiring that all revenue legislation shall originate in the house of representatives. The house message was referred to the committee on finance with instructions to report on the senate prerogatives on the question involved. Several minor bills were passed during the day.

The employees who were injured were hurt in the jam on the fire escape, but the condition of none of them is serious.

The loss on the building which is a six-story structure, is $250,000.

FIRE AT RIPLEY.

Several Storehouses and Other Buildings Burned.

Ripley, Tenn., Dec. 20.—Yesterday fire, which originated in the pool room of Lytle Byrd, on west side of the square, destroyed the two story brick, together with the fixtures and a small stock of cigars, etc. Loss, $1,500; insurance, $1,100. The building was owned by W. C. Thompson. Loss $2,500; insurance, $1,500. The next structure to burn was the dry goods store of Williams & Dunavant. Loss $2,500; insurance $2,000. The stock of groceries and the building of Tom Alford was damaged by fire and water to the extent of about $500. The store of J. M. Carney & Co., received slight damage. The fire was supposed to have originated from a defective pool room of Byrd's.

ENGAGEMENT RING IS NOT DESIRED

By Miss Roosevelt Who Prefers Heirloom.

She Has Worn It For Some Time and It is a Large Solitaire Sapphire in Antique Setting.

MISS ALICE ROOSEVELT'S GIFTS.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 20.—Miss Alice Roosevelt has not as yet received any formal engagement ring from her fiancee, Representative Nicholas Longworth, and she has declared that she does not wish one, no matter how anxious or willing he may be in the matter.

That does not mean, however, that she is not wearing a ring given her by Mr. Longworth, for some time ago he placed on her hand one which belonged to his grandmother at one time. This is a magnificent solitaire sapphire in antique setting of dull gold. If her will obtains she will continue to wear this without addition until it is supplemented by the wedding ring.

Since the engagement was announced they have received invitations almost without number to entertainments planned to celebrate the event. Except in the case of intimate friends such invitations have been and will continue to be declined. It is probable that Mrs. Longworth will entertain for them, presumably at a dinner some time next week.

Among the many and varied gifts Miss Roosevelt received while in the Orient were a number of Oriental fans. There are nearly fifty and many of them are exclusively beautiful, having been intended originally for purely decorative purposes. Pearl sticks and satin coverings predominate. It is certain that Miss Roosevelt now has the best collection of Oriental fans ever seen in this city. One of the mikado's souvenirs, in which Miss Roosevelt takes especial delight is a tall screen of white satin with pearl inlay. It is said to be strikingly beautiful.

The present made the young lady by the sultan of Sulu, which made so much talk, was not a ring, as has been supposed. His highness gave Miss Roosevelt two very fine pearls, perfectly matched. These were unmounted. The president's daughter has turned them over to her fiance, who will have them made into a ring for her.

Miss Roosevelt has many pieces of royal satsuma ware that have been given her. One piece is over 200 years old. Of the larger pieces a three-legged teak wood cahir is much admired.

It is the intention of the young lady to give each of the members of the party that accompanied her on the trip some memento of the occasion from among her presents. She has also distributed among the younger Roosevelts an assortment of Philippine weapons.

A friend of Representative Longworth praises him as follows:

"I am glad Nick Longworth won in his wooing. He first began to make the running at the St. Louis fair. He turned up there the very day after Miss Alice got there and kept pretty close all through her visit. He was not invited about as much as she, but they met on the Pike. Her greeting was 'Hello, Nick,' and he said 'Hello, Alice,' the half dozen young fellows round her failed to butt him out of the game after that."

"Then when a group of reporters asked Longworth if he was engaged to Miss Roosevelt, he smiled and answered softly, 'Suppose you ask her to decide that question. He is worth about $15,000,000. He has given a fine example of a man determined to win the girl he loves.'

MANY FOWLS

DISAPPEAR FROM BURNETT ST. HEN HOUSES.

It is Estimated That Fully One Hundred Chickens Have Been Stolen This Week.

Chicken thieves are operating very extensively in the city and if reports are true something like a hundred or two hundred chickens were stolen a night or two ago on Burnett street.

The thieves, for there are certainly more than one, started in at the river and robbed nearly every chicken roost on the street to the end. Some very fine fowls were taken and other people residing in that section of the city are afraid that they will also lose their chickens. It is presumed that the chickens are killed, dressed and sold to hucksters or are shipped out of the city. Some of the residents of the North Side are laying for the thieves and if they are caught in the act of robbing their roosts there will be a funeral or two to report.

CAME IN HANDY.

Examenist's Money Helped Save a Bank.

Burlington, Ia., Dec. 20.—The free-will offering donated to Evangelist William Sunday by Burlington people came in handy to save the embarrassment of the First National bank at Dallas City, Ill., whose building was burned Sunday morning.

A message was sent to Burlington banks Sunday afternoon for cash to start business with Monday morning. The time locks on all the banks here were set to open at 9 o'clock Monday morning. The cash had to be in Dallas by 8, so a canvass was made of the local merchants for what they could spare from their safes, and the entire fund of between $3,000 and $4,000 in silver and paper collected for Sunday was turned over to the local representatives of the burned bank, and with the other funds secured from local merchants, in all amounting to about $11,000, taken to Dallas City under guard, and a temporary bank opened in a building near the burned structure.

SET FIRE TO CALABOOS

And Burned Up With the Dedapitated Structure.

Pocahontas, Ark., Dec. 20.—At Biggers, twelve miles north of here, on Saturday afternoon, J. M. Herrin, aged about 40, perished in a fire which he had himself caused. Herrin had been arrested for being intoxicated and guilty of unseemly conduct, and before locking him up the marshal had been careful to remove, along with his other effects, the matches found in his pockets. The prisoner, however, on the pretext that he wanted to smoke, secured matches from a passing boy, and shortly afterwards the calabooze was discovered afire. Before the door could be broken down and Herrin rescued he had been burned to death his body being charred almost beyond recognition. Investigation showed that the fire had started in the bedding.

BASEBALL DOPE IS COMING FAST NOW

Vincennes Does Not Want East St. Louis in League.

It Cannot Be Forecast What the Annual Kitty Meeting Will Bring Forth.

CHIEF LLOYD IS IN THE GAME.

Vincennes fans are putting a stumbling block in the way of Kitty league promoters who are attempting to effect a circuit for the season 1906.

The Vincennes fans can not see how the league will be formed with East St. Louis in it and yet stick to the national agreement. The national agreement will not permit two towns within that limit and it is said cannot be taken in if the rules are strictly adhered to.

There is a great deal of baseball talk in all the papers now, the fans looking forward to the coming baseball season with interest. There are rumors out that if East St. Louis comes in President Brown will resign as such and accept the management of the team. This is probably erroneous as President Brown is not in favor of East St. Louis because he does not think the town would support it.

There is talk of Manager Dan McCarty, last year manager of the Cairo team, taking the management of the Danville, Ill., team if Danville is admitted. Eddie Kolb will take management of the Vincennes team and Harry Lloyd of the Paducah team.

Forney, catcher; Hippert, infielder, of Vincennes team, will go to Rock Island, Ill., and Barbour, third baseman, will go to Louisville, Augusta, Ga., has bought Cooper, the infielder who towards the last of the season played left field for Vincennes.

Chief Lloyd went into Ohio several months ago after the close of the season, and looked up good material.

He says he will be in the game with another pennant winning team and will give Kolb and his bunch of Hoosiers a hard run.

OLD STAIRWAY

Used to Hang Prisoners By the British.

Augusta, Ga., Dec. 20.—By the razing of the old Welch house, with what was known as the "hanging staircase," is removed one of the most famous memorials of British brutality during the revolutionary war.

After the capture of Charleston by the British in 1780, they captured

Augusta. Col. Elijah Clarke raised a regiment of riflemen and attempted to retake the town. The British were assisted by Indians, but Clarke had the advantage, and finally Col.

Charles Brown, the British commander, was forced to take refuge in the Welch house. The Georgia riflemen on September 4 were taken in the rear by British reinforcements, and left thirty prisoners in the hands of the British.

Col. Brown, slightly wounded, lay in an upper room of the Welch house.

To him the prisoners were brought.

"Hang them!" he commanded,

"every damned rebel of them. And string them up from the staircase, so that I can see it from here."

Thirteen were strangled before his eyes, when Brown ordered that the seventeen remaining prisoners should be massacred by Indians in the yard.

Brown having his cot moved to the front window so that he could enjoy the spectacle from a box seat, as it were.

When "Light Horse" Harry Lee recaptured Augusta the next spring

Col. Brown was still there. The colonial riflemen hanged him from the same staircase where the thirteen patriots had been executed.

Cannon Wagon Proves Success in Fighting Big Fires in the Large Cities.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 20.—Engineers of the fire department expressed great satisfaction yesterday at the way the new "cannon wagon" worked at the Racharach fire. The machine, which is the invention of George Bardsley, superintendent of the machine shop at the bureau of fire, marks the beginning of a new era in fire fighting. The new machine is designed to utilize the enormous pressure of the fire mains, without coupling with engines or hose.

FOREMAN'S LIFE HAS BEEN THREATENED

He Has Enough of Knox County
Investigation.

The Judge Declines to Accept and
Says That Troops Will Be Asked For.

INDICTMENTS NOT RETURNED

London, Ky., Dec. 20.—The investigation which is going on before the Knox county grand jury on the alleged fraud and bribery in the late Republican primary election was temporarily blocked by the illness of one of the members of the grand jury, and the resignation of the foreman. Consequently the grand jury was not in session Monday at all, and the eleven indictments already found and prepared ready to file could not be returned.

Foreman W. S. Woodson, who has been up to this time the leading spirit in the investigation, has at last weakened under the great load of abuse, threats and indignation of the enraged public, and offered his resignation to Judge Faulkner, who positively refused to accept it. Woodson stands at length to the court insisting that continued threats and demonstrations of violence had convinced him that his life was in danger. He asked the court to give him and the jury such protection as would prevent their being assassinated.

He was informed by the court that they would be given such protection as the officers of the court could insure, and if that was not sufficient, state troops would be asked for.

William Golden, a member of the grand jury and an uncle of Wharton Golden, who made himself notorious as a star witness in the Goebel assassination case, failed to show up today, but remained at home in bed, claiming to be sick. Judge Faulkner ordered an investigation of his condition and sent the sheriff to the country to summon a number of men from whom to select his successor.

His place will be filled tomorrow, and the investigation will proceed, and the indictments already found will be filed in court.

Four of the county officers elect have already been indicted, and it is said that few, if any, will escape. If the investigation goes on, and Judge Faulkner has expressed his determination to keep the jury at work the remainder of the week.

MUST STOP BOYCOTT.

President Urges San Francisco Business Men to Use Influence.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 20.—Responding to communications from the Merchants' Exchange of San Francisco, President Roosevelt has written a letter in which he expresses his views concerning the Chinese boycott of American goods, and also the exclusion laws. The president says this government must do justice as well as exact justice; that Chinese laborers should be excluded, but that the exempt classes of Chinese should be treated courteously. If the exclusion laws need to be amended, American merchants must exercise their influence for amendment, he says. The president adds that the immigration department has acted with utmost harshness toward the Chinese, the fault resting ultimately with mistaken public opinion.

In regard to the Chinese boycott of American goods, the president says that everything in his power and that of the state department has been done to stop the boycott.

"Anything further," he continues, "must be done by your own representatives in the senate and house, by way of making such changes in the exclusion law as to prevent the injustice and humiliation to which the Chinese, who do not belong to the coolie class, have been subjected in coming to this country."

The Merchants' Exchange held a meeting and gave prompt acquiescence to the president's views by adopting resolutions favoring such amendments to the exclusion laws as would cause them to conform to what the chief executive deemed right and just.

GOOD PLACES

FOR SEVERAL KENTUCKIANS ON SENATE COMMITTEES.

Blackburn and McCreary Both Fare
Quite Well in the Appointments.

Washington, Dec. 20.—Standing committees of the senate were announced in accordance with assignments arranged by the republican caucus, and the democratic steering committee acting separately.

Every republican senator was given a chairmanship except Burton, of Kansas, who was ignored entirely as to assignments in response to the request that he be not placed on any committee pending the determination of charges against him in the courts.

The action of the republican caucus, however, precipitated a debate in the senate as to the status of senators convicted of offenses.

Vacancies were left for Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, and Senator Gearin, of Oregon, neither of whom has been sworn in.

Kentucky's two senators will be kept busy, each being members of seven committees. Mr. Blackburn is on the following: Judiciary, Military Affairs, Naval Affairs, Porto Rico, Census, Executive departments, University of the United States.

Mr. McCreary is on the following: Weights and Measures, Pacific Railroads, Foreign Relations, Philippine Island, Cuban Relations, Industrial Expositions and Investigation of Civil Service Branches.

JACKSON STREET
LINE IMPROVED

Traction Company Begins Re-pairs On It.

General Manager Bleeker Is Making
Many Changes—A Real Metropolitan Line.

OTHER CHANGES ARE PLANNED

The Paducah Traction company is improving the tracks and wires on Jackson street, and the improvement is welcomed by the residents in that section of the city.

For years the Jackson street line has been in bad shape. It is a bump and shake up from the time the car leaves Sixth street and passengers are in misery during the ride.

The traction company is leveling the track and putting in new ties and rails where needed. When the work on this line is finished it will be as smooth as any part of the system.

Manager John S. Bleeker is running the traction company in true metropolitan style. One

Daily Thought.
Every new attainment is a new source of pleasure.—Story.

Judge D. L. Sanders, who has served the city as police judge for so many years with lasting honor and credit, has rounded out another term, and has received another commission for four years. The judge is eminently fitted for the place, and to have held it for so long, and to have constantly added to his popularity and prestige, is something that speaks with more force than all the words that could be conjured up to pay him tribute. He understands the criminal, he reads human nature as if it were in plain black and white, and his justice is as often as it should be, tempered with mercy. There is not a more modest, unassuming man in the entire city, and yet there is none whose official career has had a more salutary effect on the moral structure of our civic being than his. We like to see a man enjoy, as Judge Sanders enjoys, the fruits of a long and honored service, and believe that we voice the wish of every good citizen when we express the hope that his new term will be as abundant in good health, success and satisfaction to the people, as his other terms have been.

Some idea of the state of affairs in some Kentucky counties may be derived from reports from Knox county, where the grand jury foreman has been constrained to resign to keep from being assassinated. He was assured all possible protection by the court, even to the extent of calling out state troops, but state troops can do a man little good when he is dead. Such conditions are a serious reflection on our civilization, but there does not appear to be any remedy for it except to change the character of some of the people. If there is any way to do this except by education or religious conversion, which would be a long and tedious route, it has not been suggested. Some of our people will in all probability have to continue to work out their destiny in their own way.

The proposition to build an arch over Island Creek instead of a bridge, is worthy of consideration. There would be serious obstacles to surmount, but the project is practicable, and an arch such as is proposed would last almost as long as there is a creek. The cost might be double the cost of a bridge, but the arch would outlast a dozen bridges, and anything could pass over it. It will be economy to abandon the bridge plan, and build nothing at present if the money cannot be obtained, and wait until year after next.

The object of the bar association meeting Friday night is to agree on a bill to be offered at the next session of the state legislature, providing for a longer term of the McCracken circuit court. It is the general opinion, evidently, that it will be advisable to take three weeks from the Marshall circuit court and put it onto the McCracken term. At present a great deal more time could be utilized in this county, although Judge Reed keeps right up with his docket. Less time is needed for the Marshall circuit court, and there can be no serious objection to the proposed change. The legislature, however, will have to provide it. With the members of the local bar behind the new bill, it ought to easily pass.

Even the most strenuous life isn't in it with Russia. It appears from reports that those who are not killing, burning and pillaging, are hiding out trying to keep from becoming victims of those who are. When the storm is over, it is to be hoped that something will be saved from the wreckage of a government that could have been great.

Thomas W. Lawson may be nearly "broke," but he does not appear to feel it so keenly that he can't talk and write as voluminously as ever. It takes a bold man to tackle the crowd that promises to be Mr. Lawson's undoing, but the man is hard to find who can beat it.

A new candidate for the United States senate has not been mentioned in several days. Is the race already won, or have the politicians lost interest?

DISGUSE POISONED HER.

Strange History of Small Child of a "Squaw Man."

Vancouver, B. C. Dec. 20.—A little girl, 3 years old, who for more than a year had been living with the half-civilized Indians of Northern Canada, is dead here. From village to village the police trailed her. The Indians, as a method of disguising her, painted her little body with a concoction of roots and herbs, which stained her skin a dusky brown. She was at last skinned by the police and taken to one of the children's aid societies in Vancouver. But the concoction with which she had been painted had poisoned her.

The child was a daughter of a Scotchman and a quarter-breed Indian girl. The girl gave the child into the keeping of her distant Indian relatives in order to be free of it.

A GREAT NUISANCE.

Streets Swept While Holiday Shoppers Stand Around and Choke.

The hundreds of holiday shoppers of the past several nights have been very indignant over the sweeping of the brick streets early in the evening, when the crowds are most dense. The streets are not properly sprinkled to begin with, or such a vast amount of dust would not be raised. The street they declare, should not be swept so early in the evening, in addition, especially when there are so many people out.

The dust from the sweeper rises in huge clouds and not only almost stifles shoppers and ruins their clothing, but the constant opening of store doors to admit new shoppers or let out those who are leaving results in the dust penetrating the stores and doing great damage to the stock of goods.

RECOVERED MONEY SPENT ON SON'S SWEETHEART.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 20.—The question of whether a mother can recover money spent by her son in courting a girl is one that will have to be decided in common pleas court. Mrs. Lizzie Cargo, of Hoboken, Pa., the mother of Norman Cargo, brought the suit against Sarah McVicker to recover $30.70, alleged to have been spent for her daughter. According to the testimony, Cargo is a minor and has a position. His mother says he used part of his wages every week in taking Mrs. McVicker's daughter to the theatre and in spending it for pop, candy and ginger ale for himself and the girl. Once, she says, she whipped the lad, but it did not prevent his visits to the girl. The justice found in her favor and an appeal was taken.

BOARD OF WORKS TO DISCUSS THAT SUIT

OF THE BRICK CONCERN AGAINST STREET CONTRACTOR.

The City Has $5,000 of the Contractor's Money Which the Brick Concern Attaches.

OTHER BUSINESS UP TODAY

The board of public works will meet this afternoon in regular session and the most important matter to come up will be that of the attachment of funds allowed Thos. Bridges Sons for street work.

The Evansville Press Brick company has filed suit against Bridges Sons for over $11,000 the balance owing for brick furnished, and $5,000, which was allowed Bridges by the council Monday night, was attached. The board of aldermen will have to act before it is allowed and the money will then be tied up by attachment. It is said that Bridges will put up collateral security and go ahead with his work of collecting estimates.

The city held back 20 per cent of the entire amount from the contractors until the work was finally received. There were few defects and rather than hold back the money from the contractors over such a small matter, Engineer Washington recommended that out of the 20 per cent retained the city allow the contractors the $5,000 which was done by the council.

It is stated that Bridges refused to pay the balance of money due the brick concern until the company settled a claim for damages for delaying the work, but did put up good security in a Wabash, Ind., bank. The security was good but the brick concern wanted the cash.

Supt. Keebler of the city electric light plant will present his recommendations for improving the electric light plant and other matters from the different departments will be acted on.

The board of works will have a great deal to do from now on until the new year's appropriation ordinance is outlined. There will be figures on the light plant to go over and figures from other departments, but it is said the light plant matter will be the most important in this line to act on.

LAWSON'S SON TO MARRY.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 20.—Formal announcement is shortly to be made of the engagement of Arnold Lawson, eldest son of Thomas W. Lawson, to Mrs. Lucia Mitchell, step-daughter of Thomas A. McIntyre, a New York banker and broker. The engagement has existed for some time, and the only reason it was not formally announced was that young Lawson has been in Mexico looking after mining interests. Mrs. Mitchell is young, beautiful, is a pronounced brunet and is credited with fortune in her own right. Her mother comes from a distinguished southern family. Intimate friends of the Lawson family expect the wedding to occur in the spring.

Drops Dead While Being Loaded.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 20.—While being loaded for shipment to Mexico City, Imp. Gonzalo, by Ferdinand dam Cherie, winner of the Czarewicz Handicap, dropped dead. He had just been bought by Cavanaugh Bros. of St. Louis and was going to Mexico for stud service. He was winner of the Goodwood cup and Alexandra plate in England, and was considered very valuable.

Stearns secured a number of girls whom he ostensibly engaged as stenographers to make application for land on promise of receiving $100 for their trouble, they make two trips to South Dakota to prove up on their claims to the land. The claims were then to become the property of Hornshell and Stearns. Four girls testified they signed the applications but never received the $100, nor were they given the free excursion to South Dakota promised them.

Shortly after the jury returned a verdict both defendants were sentenced by Judge Amidon and the sentences were interspersed by sensational charges made against South Dakota officials and the load weeping of the two aged defendants that affected every one present in the court room.

Stearns said soon after he was arrested he came to St. Paul to see the district attorney. He said he has always been willing to plead guilty to having fenced the lands for pasture and declared he never tried to get the lands for any other purpose.

"Sixty other men who have been doing the same thing that I have been doing have come direct to the district attorney's office and have been allowed to go free," he said, and added that while county judge in South Dakota he repeatedly refused to sign false papers for people who tried to induce him to do so though it was a common practice.

Stearns was then sentenced to one year and six months in the Minnesota penitentiary at Stillwater, and fined $1,000. Hornshell was sentenced to six months in jail and fined $500.

BOMB WAS HARMLESS.

BUT IT WAS ENOUGH TO BADLY FRIGHTEN ON THE HIGH GAZOO.

Paris, Dec. 20.—The bomb found on the train at Saint Nom La Breche, on which President Loubet was proceeding from Marley with a shooting party, and which it was supposed was intended to kill the President, turns out to have been harmless. Analysis showed that the contents were composed of clay, crushed coal, and torn paper soaked in petroleum.

The bomb was labelled "long live Malat," referring to one of the anarchists recently acquitted of the charge of participation in the attempt on the lives of King Alfonso and President Loubet May 31, last.

THE LAST JURY CASE WAS HEARD TODAY

Judge Reed is Sentencing the Prisoners in Circuit Court.

Elli Drane Gets a New Trial and Pleads Guilty to the Crime of Purse Snatching.

CIRCUIT COURT IS ABOUT OVER.

This afternoon the last jury case was tried in circuit court and court will end this week.

This afternoon Judge Reed sentenced nearly all the prisoners convicted and was sentencing at press time. This has been a very eventful term of court—a record-breaker—and a hard one for the attorneys in session street.

Ellis Drane, colored, who got ten years for snatching Miss Ella Sanders' opera glasses, was granted a new trial and pleaded guilty with the understanding he get no more than two years. The jury was empaneled this afternoon and had the case at press time.

Drane cried when the verdict of ten years was read and begged the Lord to have mercy on him. His appeals touched the heart of Commonwealth Attorney Lovett who agreed on the new trial.

The motion for a new trial in the case of Lindo Murphy, white, for grand larceny, was overruled and the defendant was sentenced. The following were sentenced this afternoon:

The Case Dismissed.

Deputy United States Marshal George Saunders, of Mayfield, yesterday served on the steamboat Three Stars in the local harbor, papers showing that H. Filliet had sued the craft owners for $32 he claims due him for services. U. S. Commissioner W. A. Gardner today heard the case and dismissed it.

Licensed to Marry.

George Wilson, aged 29, and Minnie Clark, aged 25, colored, were licensed to wed today.

Alex McCarty, aged 24, and Jessie Addington, aged 18, of the city, were licensed to wed today.

BOOK BY MR. O. O. STEALEY.

"Twenty Years in the Press Gallery," Going to Print.

A volume of extraordinary interest to public men and libraries generally will be sent to the printer this week by Col. O. O. Stealey, the veteran correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal. Mr. Stealey has named his work "Twenty Years in the Press Gallery," which gives an idea of its interest and valuable contents. Col. Stealey has been an observer and chronicler of national affairs since 1883, when he first entered the press galleries of congress. His acquaintance with public men, both on their public and private sides, and his study of the great questions that have arisen during the last two decades, furnish ample material for chapters of notable interest. It will be found a complete political and official text book of legislative work for the last twenty years.

Louis Smithers, colored, charged with detaining Estelle Hulbert, was this morning acquitted.

Will Greek, white, was fined $32 and costs for conducting a disorderly house.

Arnett Hodge, colored, charged with stealing a $25 dog from Mr. Geo. Rawleigh, was this morning acquitted.

The grand jury reported two more indictments this morning but they were kept from the press, the defendants not being before the court.

Arrested For Alleged Theft.

Lizzie Hubbard, colored, was arrested last night by Constable Shelton, of Mechanicsburg, on a charge of stealing from John Sears, the Meyers and Mill street grocer. She is alleged to have gone into the grocery and while the proprietor's back was turned, made a grab for small change in the cash drawer and got away with an unknown amount. Someone seized a gun and fired as she ran out, but missed. She was later found in "Capanah," and arrested.

The woman was this morning recognized by Justice Sears for her appearance tomorrow before the grand jury.

The woman was this morning recognized by Justice Sears for her appearance tomorrow before the grand jury.

Performed at Metropolis This Morning by Justice Liggett.

Justice Thomas Liggett, of Metropolis, Ill., this morning performed a double wedding there.

Clement G. Yates, aged 21, a mormon on the Paducah Traction line, and Miss Nina E. Hines, aged 18, of Paducah, and Woodson Devine and Miss Mamie L. Trantham, of Calvert City, Marshall county, left on the early boat and were married by Justice Liggett, who used the same ceremony for both. They all returned this afternoon.

There is a great deal of satisfaction in thinking that if you had any money how many times you would have lost it going into sure things. New York Press.

Sheriff Files Bond.

Sheriff-elect John W. Ogilvie has executed bond for the faithful performance of the duties. He gave securities of Edward L. Atkins, Thomas J. Atkins, George C. Thompson, W. F. Bradshaw and L. B. Ogilvie.

Brasses Stolen From Mill.

Some one stole a lot of brass journal boxes from the Langstaff-Orme

Mfg. Co. The police have a clue and hope to catch the thief. The brasses were heavy and valuable—the total value probably going above $20 which will constitute a grand larceny charge.

Police Court.

Police Judge D. L. Sanders held a brief session of police court this morning, having but four defendants before him.

Jesse Tillman, colored, a boy who was playing with a 22 calibre blank pistol and shot Gladys McFadden in the back, was fined $10 and costs for flourishing a pistol. The shell was blank and the wad went into the other boy's back. The defendant claimed he was playing, but Judge Sanders stated he was guilty of flourishing a pistol, and fined him.

Other cases were: John Greer, colored, drunkenness, $1 and costs; Florence Greer, colored, drunk and disorderly, $5 and costs; Tom Austin, colored, breach of the peace, $5 and costs.

Granted Attorney's License.

Mr. Miller Nelson, of Smithland, was examined here yesterday for an attorney's license, which was granted to him. He has been studying law under Attorneys Bush and Wilson, at Smithland.

Arrests Today.

Florence Greer, colored, was arrested this morning for disorderly conduct.

Wilbert Upchurch, colored, who is wanted on an old charge of malicious cutting, was arrested this morning.

The warrant had been misplaced and is being searched for this afternoon. The cutting happened many months ago on the South Side.

The Case Dismissed.

Deputy United States Marshal George Saunders, of Mayfield, yesterday served on the steamboat Three Stars in the local harbor, papers showing that H. Filliet had sued the craft owners for $32 he claims due him for services. U. S. Commissioner W. A. Gardner today heard the case and dismissed it.

Theatrical Notes

George Sydney and his wife, Carrie Webber, in "Busy Izzy's Vacation," pleased fairly large audience at The Kentucky last night. Sydney this year has one of the biggest shows of its kind on the road, and his piece, while it has much in it that he offered last season, is handsomely mounted, and his chorus is largely and admirably drilled, while his principals are above the average. Sydney himself, as a Hebrew impersonator, is inimitable and gives a clean, inoffensive delineation. Miss Webber is clever and attractive, and the two are surrounded by much talent. The audience seemed delighted, and many seasoned theatre-goers declared "Busy Izzy" was one of the best ever seen at The Kentucky.

The tramp, Irish and foolish boy characters were all first-class, and deserve great praise for their work. Mr. Charles LoMier, the tramp, was here last season and is probably one of the most unique comedians in his role as can be found. His very appearance brings forth a laugh. Matt Kennedy, the Irishman, Cathryne Rowe Palmer, and H. Baker, as the "toughs," and all the other principals won repeated applause.

The performance is replete with travesties, burlesques and parodies and one of the most amusing was a burlesque on "Tannenbaum" which was sung in the "Royal Chef" here. LoMier's burlesque on opera, with chorus, was also a side-splitter.

THE BIBLE

Is Good Newspaper Style, Says William E. Curtis.

Columbia, Md., Dec. 20.—William E. Curtis, the well-known newspaper correspondent, has delivered the third lecture in a course on "Journalism" here. His subject was "The Confessions of an Old Reporter."

Mr. Curtis said the day of Bohemianism in journalism has passed. He advised students of journalism to read the Bible for newspaper style, and said the next best text-books are the writings of Dickens and Zola.

He said modern rhetorics are not and no contribution written in the style of Addison would be accepted by any editor in America unless Addison's name was signed to it.

NEW FISCAL COURT WILL HAVE TO DECIDE

The Question of Building Jail and Court House Here.

The Session of This Fiscal Court Has Been Unproductive of Much.

SEVERAL REPORTS RECEIVED

Little was done in fiscal court this morning, the magistrates simply hearing a report or two and then adjourning.

The report of Justice R. J. Barber as agent for the court was received and filed. It was a report showing how much money he had paid back to taxpayers for erroneous tax collections made by the sheriff. The total was $3,090.94.

L. D. Potter was given the contract to collect delinquent taxes at a commission of 33 1/3 per cent.

In the matter of building a new jail and court house, Judge Lightfoot stated to the court this morning that he had heard of a proposition made Nashville and which was carried out and a fine court house built with no cost to the county except for the site, and hoped to secure such a proposition for this county. He has written but received no answer. The board took no action, and when Judge Lightfoot gets the matter well under way and in shape to present to the court, will do so. This will be the new incoming board, however.

Sheriff Potter's report, on which settlement with him was based, is lengthy, and shows that he paid the following into the various funds:

Funding account, $40,609.40; county levy fund, $26,688.20; road and bridge fund, $9,724.50; pauper fund, $5,801.34. The sheriff paid over $23,500 previous to last week, while at the latter date, which closed his collections, he paid over $68,560.16.

The sheriff has until April in which to collect poll taxes for this year and the franchise tax from the Illinois Central and the N. C. & St. L. railroad. He cannot collect these now because the assessments have not yet been certified to him.

Sheriff Potter has collected and turned over $45,496.63 for the state with the exception of $496 which he will pay over when he goes to Frankfort next week to carry the female circuit court prisoner.

The following quarterly amounts were allowed:

Dennis Champy, for A. Carrigan, $15; Kate Sivils for Emma Simmons, $15; W. M. Baldry for Jane Counts, $15; Thomas Jones for J. P. Gentry, $15; W. T. Byrd for Mrs. Magee, $20; John Thompson for Mrs. Burns, $18; Ellen Campbell for idiot child, $18; M. B. Tapp for Rufus Story, $10; Mary B. Harper for child, $12; Mr. Lesh for himself, $12.

E. H. Puryear was allowed $100 for looking up the title to property claimed by L. D. Husbands.

The county treasurer was ordered to pay $5,000 to the First National bank and take up that much of the $20,000 that bank furnished the county several years ago when the county raised money for road purposes.

The county treasurer was authorized to borrow $15,000 to pay off the indebtedness caused by the road and bridge fund being overdrawn. The treasurer was also ordered to pay off the notes made when money was borrowed for the county levy fund.

J. S. Young reported collection of $13.25.

City Health Officer William Graves was allowed $23 for vaccinating prisoners.

The following allowances were made out of the pauper fund: Robert Wilkins, $687.88; M. J. Michelson, $14.36; Lang Brothers, $77.80; Englert & Bryant, $42.75; J. W. Pendley, $20; while out of the county levy fund was allowed the following: W. E. Baker, $7.20; C. E. Graham, $453.30; Jailer L. L. Jones, $466.20; W. E. Baker, $234.2; Sheriff Lee Potter, $119.20; W. E. Covington, $3.05; Weille & Son, $3.35.

WIRES UNDERGROUND

East Tennessee Has About Completed Important Work.

The East Tennessee Telephone company has about completed the laying of thirteen cables of 800 wires each in the conduits laid when Kentucky avenue was paved. The company will hereafter have conduits for underground wires on all paved streets in the business part of the city. These will be connected with the new switchboard and the old switchboard will be discarded. The new board has been here for some time waiting for the connections.

BIGGEST YET

WILL BE THE SHIPMENT OF WHISKEY TONIGHT.

Over $6,000 Worth of "Wet Goods" Will Leave on the Steamer Tennessee.

When the steamer Tennessee leaves this evening for Waterloo, Ala., and other points on the Tennessee river she will take out the biggest shipment of whiskey ever sold by this railroad.

This afternoon the Geo. H. Goodman & Co. commenced sending whiskey to the boat in large transfer wagons. It was in bottles and jugs, the latter being greatly in the majority. This whiskey will be distributed to people all up the Tennessee river and when the boat goes out it will look more like a floating saloon than a steamboat.

The trade is changing up the river as this year the bottle trade has increased 35 per cent and the farmers buy whiskey in parties. For instance, a crowd of farmers will get together and buy $20 or $25 worth of Christmas whiskey and it is shipped to one man, but the order reads how it shall be put up so it may properly be distributed.

A local dealer this morning estimated that the trip on today's steamer would be worth $6,500, this being whiskey alone. He said this was decidedly the most whiskey he had ever shipped up the Tennessee river. This is the trip that always goes out before the holidays. With this shipment the holiday business is practically over. Of course some small bills will be sold up and until Christmas the force of the company all night last night and Mr. Goodman have been head over heels in business for over a week.

Manfred Friedman, of the Paducah Distilleries company, stated that his business this Christmas had tripled itself. He was rushed this morning and could hardly get time to talk. He said that his labored jugs had run out and he was now using plain jugs. He had a force of eight men busy putting up the liquor and said for three or four nights none of them had had full night's sleep and they did not go to their meals, he sending out and buying them. The whiskey business, according to all the dealers, has been something wonderful this year.

Mr. Adams has prepared a plan for next flag day, June 1, in which the old house will be the center of national interest. An address by President Roosevelt and the formal presentation of the house to the nation by the board of trustees are important parts of the contemplated program.

The presentation of the historic home is in strict accordance with the principles of the association as defined in its charter and set forth at length in an address to the American people made after the charter was granted.

The declaration said in part:

"The object of the American Flag House and Betsy Ross Memorial Association is to purchase and preserve her historic building situated at 239 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., in which the first flag of the United States was made by Betsy Ross and subsequently adopted by congress June 14, 1777, and to erect a national memorial in honor of this illustrious woman."

Numerous attempts have been made in the past to remove this historic building to other cities. The present plans provide that it shall remain in Philadelphia, where it rightfully belongs there to be held in trust for the nation.

The Betsy Ross mentioned, was a great aunt of Messrs. Ned and Tom Loker, the well known newspaper men of Paducah. They now have at their old home in Eddyville, Lyon county, a cup and saucer that formerly belonged to her, and several quilts that she made.

A bulletin was posted in the car shops and planing mill announcing the services yesterday and this morning many employees brought their dinners and remained at the shops to hear the preaching.

Yesterday services were held at the county jail. The ministers are making a canvas of the town, preaching at places they think they can do the most good.

CAT CAUSED A PANIC.

Marion, O., Dec. 20.—With a paper bag tied to its tail a cat was turned loose in a revival meeting here by some mischievous boys. The result was a panic among the women of the congregation, many of whom screamed and one fainted. The boys have not been located.

BETSY ROSS HOME WILL BE PRESERVED

Birthplace of American Flag to Become Nation's Property.

The Last Penny Has Been Subscribed —A Fitting Presentation to Be Made.

SHE HAS DESCENDANTS HERE

Bought by the dimes of 1,030,000 Americans, many of them school children and some from Paducah, the home of Betsy Ross, at Philadelphia, which is also the birthplace of the American flag, is about to be turned over to the nation by the trustees, who have raised the money through persistent efforts extending over seven years.

Incidental to the faithful execution of the trust has been the careful preservation of the house as it was when George Washington went to the Ross home at Philadelphia and there gave his emphatic approval of the flag as it was designed by the young and beautiful Mistress Ross.

The men, who, more than any others, have been responsible for this preservation are John Quincy Adams, the secretary of the American Flag House and Betsy Ross Memorial Association, and Charles H. Weisgerber, who conceived the plan to save the house, and who has been manager of the association since its organization. Mr. Adams is the lineal descendant of the Adamses, who were presidents of the United States. Mr. Weisgerber is the painter of the picture "Birth of Our Nation's Flag."

Through their efforts the last penny for payment of $25,000 purchase money is in hand, and the house will be redeemed for the American people the first of the year.

New Building Finished.

Mr. Frank Kirchoff's new pressed brick business building on North 4th street between Broadway and Jefferson, opposite the Rhodes-Burford building, has been practically completed and Frank Just will occupy it. The building is a handsome and substantial structure, and an ornament to that locality.

The reason that no motion for a new trial in the H. H. Loving murder case has been made, attorneys for the defense state, is Mrs. Manie Cooney, the official court stenographer, is ill and has been unable to transcribe the evidence. As soon as she gets the evidence ready for the defendant's attorneys they will complete their motion for a new trial and file their reasons.

At present Mr. Loving is at the county jail, at this stage his case not being bailable. If he is granted a new trial he can get bail.

WAS AN OLD KEY

WITH WHICH ALARM WAS TURNED IN TO POOL COUNCIL-MAN.

The Police Have Been Able to Learn Nothing About Who Was the Person Used It.

The city authorities say that they have been able to learn nothing of the identity of the person who turned in a false alarm of fire about the time someone called Councilman Sam Hill from a meeting of the general council last Friday, so the democrats would have a majority.

Chief of Police Collins and Mayor Yeiser state that an investigation has been made, but nothing learned. The person who telephoned the message cannot be punished, as he violated no law but who ever turned in the fire alarm could be fined.

The key used to turn in the alarm was not the regular key used in that locality, it is claimed by city officials, but No. 44, an old key that had been in possession of someone for several years. There used to be a record of the keys, but it has been lost, and it is not known who had the key the last time the department had a record of it.

Just a Few Christmas Suggestions

The Christmas offerings of neckwear are the handsomest we have ever seen. Our buyer has searched the markets of the world for novelties and new creations and we have them from Paris, London and all the centers of fashions. We want you to see them and see them quick, as we are making inroads into them each day. 25c to $5.00 are the prices.

Hair brushes and combs have been known to wear out. Probably you can use a set in your list for gifts. We have a new line of beautiful as well as serviceable things in military brushes, mirrors and combs, in ebony touched up prettily with sterling silver. Also cigar cases in gun metal and sterling silver. 50c up.

Probably you have some little friends or brothers you want to send something for Christmas. Then let us suggest one of the handsome caps we are showing for little fellows. Or, we have a big line of pretty neckwear for youngsters, as well as kid and wool gloves, ear muffs, handkerchiefs and many other things for the boys. 25c up.

We are offering some very handsome things in umbrellas for Men and Women, gold, pearl and sterling silver handles, silk and all the umbrella materials. The display is a very handsome one and offers a ready solution to the "what to give" problem. We have them as low as $1.50 in price and up to $25.00.

Some More Christmas Suggestions

Gloves are another article of men's apparel of which one can not have too many. Like our umbrellas, they are always getting lost, sometimes they are soiled or wear out. Any-way men folk always need them. We are agents for Dent's, Fowne's and Adler's kid gloves and MacGeorge's Scotch wool gloves. Have also Sealskin gauntlet for stormy weather driving. $1.00 up.

We are showing some exclusive things in Men's fancy hose, just the things for Christmas presents for your brothers, or men friends or relatives. No man can have too many pretty socks and they come as appreciable gifts to every man. We are showing some very pretty things at 25c and our 50c lines are very handsome patterns; cotton or wool.

Is some one eternally borrowing your suit case or grip, or are you always borrowing some one else's? Then come let us sell you one for Christmas and put an end to it. We are showing a great, big line of suit cases, handbags and grips, in leather, alligator skin and kindred products as well as English hat boxes for silk hats. $1.05t or $25.00.

Jot down a pair of handsome silk suspenders for one of your friends or relatives. They are ever appreciable gifts. We are showing some very handsome things in this line. They are made up in handsome silks, with sterling silver and gold buckles, and come in very dainty colors. If a man has a streak of vanity they will appeal to him. 25c to $7.50.

Just a Word to the Worried And Others

WE never entered upon a Christmas season with such an assembly of things useful and beautiful, substantial and serviceable as we did this one and, notwithstanding our enormous trade, which has been beyond our expectations, we are still able, by drafts on our reserve stocks, to show you unbroken assortments in every department. And every day this week we have been getting in new things---the latest in Neckwear, Handkerchiefs and novelties for Christmas---inspirations of the last moment. We are thus enabled to, and do, offer you an exhibition of goods in our lines that rival the displays of any store anywhere.

We have plenty of clerks, and shopping is easy here. A child can make purchases with as much satisfaction as a grown person. Our deliveries are prompt and our pleasure in showing you our offerings as pleasant as the showing will be to you.

Only a few more days intervene till Christmas. We would advise that you make your purchases early and avoid the rush incident to the last days' shopping.

FIDELITY REWARDED BY MASTER'S PEOPLE

A Former Slave Receives Regular Remittances in Old Age.

Fought Side By Side With His Master and Saved His Life During the War.

He Lives Near Owingsville.

Owingsville, Ky., Dec. 20.—Two or three times every year there comes to the postoffice here a letter addressed to "Samuel Giles, Owingsville, Ky., and bearing the Hopedale, Mass., postmark. Giles is a negro, and ex-slave, and these letters never fail to bring joy to his heart, for they are sent by the daughter of his former master, Mrs. George W. Draper, of Hopedale, Mass. The letters always contain a generous check, and form Giles' livelihood.

Giles when a youngster belonged to the wealthy Preston family, then living in this county. In the family was young William Preston, who later became United States ambassador to Spain and who was a participant in the war with Mexico and the civil war. Young Preston early formed an attachment for the little negro Sam Giles, who belonged to his father, and the elder Preston made his son a present of the little picayuny.

The two grew to manhood almost inseparable companions. One day the news came that war was coming with Mexico. Young Preston declared his intention of proceeding to the front. Giles begged to be taken along. Preston refused at first, but finally consented, and the representatives of two races marched away together. During all the long campaigns Preston and Giles fought side by side, and Preston was saved from injury, and perhaps death, several times by Giles.

When the war ended Preston returned to Kentucky, bringing Giles with him and rewarding him generously for his faithfulness. After a time again rumors of war were heard and William Preston, who had been created a captain in the Mexican war, announced his intention or organizing a company of southerners for the confederacy. He offered Sam Giles his freedom, but the faithful negro refused the offer and begged his young master to take him to the front with him. Preston refused, but Giles pointed out to him how much aid he had been to Preston during the Mexican war, and as a result he was taken to the seat of war.

At the battles of Missionary Ridge and Chickamauga the two fought together—one for love of his beautiful southland, the other for love of his young master. At the siege of Vicksburg, when Preston was stricken by fever, the young negro Giles watched over and nursed him as a mother nurses her child. When at last Preston opened his eyes on the world with reason in them, he knew that Giles had saved his life. When at last the war was ended, the two again came to Kentucky, battle-scarred heroes. In recognition of his services Preston, a general, gave Giles a tract of land in this county, and erected a house for him. It is here that Giles yet lives.

A few years ago a sketch of Giles was published. Mrs. Draper evidently saw this, for in a short time came a check to Giles and they have been received with unfailing regularity since. Giles is now past eighty years of age. He stands straight as an Indian, and is highly respected. Whenever a white man speaks to him his hand flies to the military salute, and when anyone speaks with praise of Gen. Preston the faithful old negro's eyes sparkle with appreciation.

Dying of Famine
is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at W. B. McPherson's drug store, price 50c and $1.00 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

$100,000 Will Cause J. B. Corey to Disgorge Salacious Letters From Carnegie

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 20.—J. B. Corey, uncle of William Ellis Corey, president of the United States Steel corporation, issued a remarkable letter addressed to "the newspaper reporters of Pittsburg."

In it Mr. Corey tells of how his quiet life has been made miserable by the demands upon him for information about his nephew's affairs, and says he has decided to make good use of the information he possesses.

Mr. Corey tells in his letter of having recently given $20,000 to the fund for the relief of the suffering Jews in Russia, and says that more money is needed. He says that, inasmuch as the public likes to read about scandal, they should be compelled to pay for it. He declares that he has a number of letters which were exchanged between himself and E. R. Corey, which he is ready to hand over to the public for $100,000, the total amount to be applied to the Hebrew relief fund. He does not care, he says, in what sums the money subscribed, or whether it is made up by one individual, one hundred, one thousand or a hundred thousand. In giving the letters to the public, in consideration of the abovementioned amount, Mr. Corey says he will guarantee the contributors "that they will get their money's worth, or their money will be refunded."

Mr. Corey was seen after he had issued the statement and declared he was in earnest about the matter.

If $10.00 or $15.00 would be about what you want to put in a present we have two special kinds of rugs we want to show you. Great, generous ones, too.

RUDY, PHILLIPS & CO.

DOWIE'S SUCCESSOR

Will Be Chosen Some Time Next Year.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 20.—Followers of John Alexander Dowie in Zion City are indulging in considerable speculation as to the plans now being arranged by the general overseer for his "apostolic successor." Announcement of his failing health and a desire to be relieved of executive burdens has been followed by Dowie's call for a meeting of his eight bishops, out of which number he will select an apostolic succession. His eight overseers, or bishops, will meet at Zion City in June, and, having mediated till September, will be informed which of their number are to become apostles. It is thought that one of these apostles is to succeed Dowie as head of the Christian Catholic church, of which he is the founder.

The apostolic college will form a sort of council which will relieve Dowie of the greater part of the details of ecclesiastical overwork. There has been no intimation as to who will be selected. These men are J. G. Speicher, overseer for Zion City; J. G. Excell, general ecclesiastical overseer; N. D. Brasfield, overseer of educational institutions; William H. Piper, overseer, Chicago; Carl Hodder, Europe; Harry E. Cantel, United Kingdom; Daniel Bryant, South Africa; Wilbur G. Voliva, Australia, and George E. Mason, China, temporarily in charge of work in New York.

Regarding his own condition, Dowie said:

"Great discomfort has come to me through the swelling of my limbs and impeded circulation of the blood. All the hemorrhage has apparently passed away from my bronchial tubes, but the inconvenience and pressure upon the heart and lungs has been such that sleep has been denied me, except for a few fitful hours. This, with other complications, has made it clear to me that I must apart and rest a while."

PENSIONS FOR THE OLDER EMPLOYEES

Government Has Too Many Aged Men On Its Pay Rolls.

Many Departments Would Be Benefitted by Introduction of Younger Material.

MATTER IS BEFORE CONGRESS.

Washington, Dec. 20.—Representative Tawney's resolution, calling upon the President to furnish to the house all information bearing upon the number of government employees in the service who are 70 years of age or over, the information to be given by departments and bureaus, is innocent appearing, and no explanation was made of the reason underlying it. Its full purpose, however, is known and it is far-reaching. The resolution was passed without discussion.

It appears that Mr. Tawney has been making a study of governmental expenditures since he has become chairman of the great money committee and has decided that it would be wise to reduce the payrolls in some of the government departments. He has been assured by the heads of the respective departments that this is impossible as, if they are deprived of the present number of employees, the government business will suffer. At the same time the heads of departments and bureaus assured him that if it was not for the useless material they have assigned to them and kept in their offices, through the working of the civil service laws, they could get along with less than the present force. One of the strong complaints which Mr. Tawney has had is to the effect that there are so many old men in the government service, who remain in their places through the fact that pity or regard for past services prevents them from discharging the older men and giving their places to younger and more competent clerks. Mr. Tawney has come to the conclusion that there has grown up an involuntary and automatic civil pension list in the government departments in consequence of the system of rotting old men.

Mr. Tawney knew of no better authority to turn to than the President. He believes that information coming from Mr. Roosevelt will be well received by the country, because the President is looked upon as such a champion of the system, which has made possible and imperative the retention of these old men in their places.

The information may be the basis for agitation in favor of a real civil pension bill. If it is, it will not find support from Mr. Tawney. He has an entirely different use to put it to. If he finds that the number of old men is sufficiently large that it will be a distinct advantage to the government to dispense with their services, he will place in the set of appropriations for the present session a provision that no part of the appropriations shall be used to pay any employee over 70 years of age.

Mr. Tawney realizes fully that this will raise a howl by the old employees and their friends. In spite of this, he believes it can not be successfully attacked on any other than sentimental grounds. That being true he thinks he has a duty in taking only the practical view of the situation offered. He believes, with a majority of the two houses, that after many years in the government service at a rate of pay far in excess of that paid to most other folks in the ordinary walks of life a man reaches the age of 70 years and has not secured a competence for himself, it is not the duty of the government to care for him, nor has he any one to blame but himself in any but extreme and unusual cases.

BODY CREMATED

And Fired From Cannon—Unique Philadelphia Organization.

Philadelphia, Dec. 20.—The Mary Jane Fishing Club is probably the most remarkable organization ever formed, carrying its gaudy joke even beyond the grave and eclipsing any "suicide" club that was ever dreamed of. In the first place, the club has thirteen members, no more and no less, and it adopts every unlucky sign that it can lay its hands upon.

At the death of each member, his body is cremated, the ashes loaded into a cannon, which accompanies the surviving members of the cortege, with a big hurrah to the Delaware breakwater. The cannon, containing the sacred ashes is fired over the water, while the band is playing "A Jolly Good Fellow."

Meanwhile everybody gets drunk, and prays for some other member to die quick, so they can have another boozing good time. Invited guests who were particular friends of the ashes before they became ashes, accompany the living club members and participate in the jolly ceremony.

The first and only member to go so far is the originator of the idea, W. J. Murray, and it was not until his funeral was held that the principles of the organization were divulged. Since then other members have admitted that their funeral service will be similar to Murray's.

ONE-TIME MILLIONAIRE

Now Has But $100 and Takes Bankrup: Law.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 20.—George C. Buchanan, of the Newcomb-Buchanan company, distillers, which failed some years ago, has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, naming his liabilities as $70,723.92, with assets of $100, consisting of wearing apparel.

At the time of the failure Buchanan was quoted at $3,000,000, but the biggest portion of this was swept away in the crash. Since then his fortune has dwindled, and he has little except the monthly stipend he receives for representing a Chicago whisky concern. Mr. Buchanan is regarded as the best whisky man in the state, but has not been able to regain his financial footing. Victor Newcomb, his partner, was former president of the Louisville and Nashville railroad.

Kansas Has a Hoodoo Senate Job; All Have Had Bad Luck Who Serve

Topeka, Kan., Dec. 20.—"The fatal succession" is the name Kansas has given to the senatorship of which Joseph Ralph Burton, the latest incumbent, is under conviction of grafting. A dark-hued bird of evil omen seems to watch over those who take the seat first occupied by James H. Lane. The hoodoo started at the outset. In 1861 when Kansas was admitted as a state and chose two senators, they tossed a coin to see which should get the short or four-year term. It went to Lane.

He served his term, was re-elected and committed suicide.

E. C. Ross, appointed to succeed him, failed to heed the demand of Kansas for the impeachment of President Johnson. Ross' vote saved the president, but Ross was defeated for re-election, cast aside and now lives an humble life.

Alexander Caldwell took the place,

STATE CAPITOL TO COST OVER MILLION

Legislature to Be Asked for Additional Appropriation.

$1,000,000 Has Already Been Set Aside But $100,000 More Will Be Necessary.

COMMISSION TO DRAFT REPORT

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 20.—Appropriations for the construction of a power house, an electric lighting plant, interior furnishings and other things needed in the erection of the new state capitol will be asked of the legislature when it convenes next month. At a meeting of the capitol commission here it was decided to ask the legislature for an additional appropriation, but the amount which will be needed was not stated by Frank M. Andrews, the architect. It was decided to have the architect make a written report setting forth the needs for the complete furnishings and improvement of the capitol, together with the cost of these. This report will be submitted to the general assembly in the governor's message to the legislature, and the latter will probably recommend the making of the increased appropriation.

The cost of the capitol will be more than the $1,000,000 which was appropriated by the last general assembly. It was explained here that the original appropriation did not cover anything except the building proper and does not provide for power and electric lighting plant, nor does it include the interior furnishings, such as filing cases, places for the storing of records and other things which will be necessary. In order to provide these the general assembly will have to make another appropriation.

The amount which will be asked will be more than $100,000 and may largely exceed that sum if the commission's plans are adopted.

One change which is desired by the commission, which would be expensive, but which would greatly improve the appearance of the interior of the building, is to substitute marble for Bedford stone in some of the columns. As present planned the marble furnishings in the building will cost about $50,000. If the changes are made and marble is used instead of stone, the cost will be about $50,000 additional.

IDEAL LIFE

Is Being Sought in Dresden and Munich By Mrs. Atherton.

New York, Dec. 20.—Mrs. Gertrude Atherton, whose novel, "The Conqueror," excited much discussion two years ago, arrived here today on the Cunard liner Pannonia from Mediterranean ports. She will stay day or two in New York, and then go to California, where she will spend the winter in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada mountains, building up her health and working on a new novel, a story of life in Northern California, which will have for its hero one of the most prominent public men in England.

Although she was born in San Francisco, and has spent most of her life in this country, Mrs. Atherton has made her home in Munich for the last few years.

"I find it impossible to work satisfactorily over here," she said, when asked why she had chosen to live abroad. "There is altogether too much of the spirit even in the literary life in our great cities. The dollar and cents point of view permeates everything to such an extent that art for art's sake, if you prefer, is quite lost sight of in the frantic desire to write something which will sell.

"Then there is too much rush and bustle in places like Chicago, New York and San Francisco. One's ideas cannot help but be affected by the undue things in this country.

"It is totally different abroad," the author continued, "especially in cities like Dresden and Munich where the ideal and the esthetic sides are held in higher esteem."

JAPAN TO KEEP DOOR.

Mikado's Men End Their Treaty Conference With the Chinese.

Pekin, Dec. 20.—The negotiations between the Japanese and Chinese plenipotentiaries with regard to Japan's future status in Manchuria came to a close today.

The treaty which has been drawn up will be signed December 21. A majority of the proposals made by Japan have been adopted verbatim.

The treaty is to remain in force an indefinite time. Under its provisions Japan will occupy the same position in Manchuria as Russia did before the war, except that the "open door" will prevail.

LITTLE "ABE"

IS ON TRIAL WHERE HE FOUGHT SO MANY CASES.

Remarkable Career of a Well Known New York Criminal Lawyer.

New York, Dec. 20.—Probably no lawyer in this city has appeared in court as great a number of times as the attorney of some one criminal, plaintiff or defendant, as little "Abe" Hummel, who is now being tried for conspiracy in the remarkable Morse-Dodge matrimonial tangle.

He sits day after day in the criminal branch of the supreme court, where he has put so many crafty questions that have cleared his clients in the last thirty years. Since his indictment over a year ago, however, the diminutive lawyer has lost much of the suave manner, and while dressed as fastidiously and as exquisitely as when defending the fair fame of some noted theatrical star, he is not the "Abe" that has been known of yore. His shiny bald head appears to be a bit halder, and his face is worn and wan.

There has been few celebrated divorce cases, especially if there was a historic end to them, in which "Abe" Hummel has not been on one side or the other. He has built up a huge practice at the bar, and he is one of the enormously wealthy lawyers in the state. Hummel for years has never missed a first night at the theater, always strolling in just before the curtain was raised, and bowing to left and right as he wended slowly his way well down toward the footlights. He has been noted for his taste in the elegancies of life, and his handsome house on the upper East Side is filled to overflowing with extravagant works of art.

The charge of conspiracy for which Hummel is standing trial was in relation to the degree of divorce granted to Mrs. Dodge. She married Charles W. Morse, the multi-millionaire ice trust man, after securing as she supposed, her legal freedom. Dodge later claimed that he had never been served, and it was intimated that his claim was made in order that Morse might again be a single man.

Novel Duties That Washington Officers Have to Perform.

Washington, Dec. 20.—Maj. Sylvester, a former St. Louisian, chief of the Washington police, has assigned a new duty to the mounted officers of his force. They are to feed the birds. According to Scripture, the fowls of the air may have their nests, but now that four inches of snow lies upon the ground in Washington, the songsters have nothing to eat. Maj. Sylvester is member of the Game and Fish Protective Association of the district, and has a tender feeling in his heart for the birds, and has directed mounted men to carry bread crumbs, wheat, corn and other grains into the suburbs and parks and sprinkle it upon the snow, that the feathered tribe may not starve. There are many quail and other game birds in the district, and the chief of police is determined that they shall not suffer.

POSTOFFICE ABUSES

Are Pointed Out By Postmaster General Cortelyou.

Washington, Dec. 20.—The postmaster general, in the daily bulletin of his department, has directed the attention of postmasters to abuses of the second-class privilege by certain publications.

After setting forth many devices used for evading the law by forcing subscriptions, and quoting the law, he says:

"In enforcing this requirement of the law as to a legitimate list of subscribers, the following will be recognized as constituting actual subscriptions:

1. Direct subscriptions to the publisher by the subscriber when paid for by him.

2. Subscriptions to the agent of the publisher when actually paid by the subscriber himself.

3. Copies regularly sold over newsboys' counters.

4. Copies regularly sold over publishers' counters.

5. Copies sent as bona fide exchanges with other publications admitted to the second-class, one copy for another.

6. Individual subscriptions desired as bona-fide gifts when paid for by the donors for the benefit of the recipients. Such subscriptions will be limited strictly to those coming within that definition, and will not be permitted to be used as a cover for an advertising or other purpose of the publisher or donor.

"Under this same rule the publisher may become donor of such gift subscriptions, but in all cases the proportion of these subscriptions to the whole list will be considered and given weight in determining the legitimacy of such lists.

"In this latter class may be included copies sent to prove insertion of advertisements."

CHAPTER V.

UPON the third day after the events of the preceding chapter Mrs. Main announced a visitor, handing me at the same time a card on which was printed with an abundance of flourishes and ornament "Mr. Morris Barnett." He made a ceremonious entry and politely discharged a few courtesies ere he got to business.

"I have come over, Mr. Greatorex," said he suavely, "to see if you are at all disposed to do a client of mine a great favor."

I did not see any very strong reason why I should favor a client of Mr. Morris Barnett; but I murmured that I was always glad to be of service to my fellow creatures.

"The fact is, sir," he resumed, laying his hat and stick upon a chair and drawing a packet of papers from his pocket, "my firm has a client who is related to the ancient Vyvyan family, the original owners of this castle, as you are no doubt aware, and he has been informed that you have come into possession of this very beautiful estate in accordance with the will, if I mistake not, of the late Mr. Kesteven."

He looked at me inquiringly, and I told him that his information was quite correct.

"I gather, Mr. Greatorex," he continued affably, "that you have been until comparatively recently a stranger to these parts and that, in short, you have no particular ties in the county?"

"That is true," said I.

"My client, sir, has naturally—you will understand the motive—a desire to purchase the property, if you are disposed to meet him and we can arrange terms. And that, shortly, is the object of my visit."

Now, you will easily conceive that falling in the present circumstances this set my blood humming. Here was yet another, and within a few days of the demise of the old proprietor, who must needs come clamoring for a sale of the castle. The fact stirred my curiosity—nay, to speak truly, inflamed me with something very like excitement.

"And what, then, is your proposal, Mr. Barnett?" I asked calmly enough.

I was sharp enough to notice a gleam of satisfaction pass over his face, but he displayed none of his triumph in his very businesslike tone.

"Ah, well, Mr. Greatorex," said he, lolling back in his chair, "you see these old places are more matters of sentimental than profitable investment."

"True," said I shortly, "and men are usually willing to pay a high price for sentiment."

"Ah, no, Mr. Greatorex," said he promptly, shaking his head, and here there was a real touch of guttural "you mistake. My client is not a rich man, but he hankers after the place of his fathers. It would mean much to him."

"It means a good deal to me," said I. "How much?" said Barnett suddenly.

"Supposing I said £20,000?"

He held up his hands. "My dear sir, my dear sir!" he repeated and stared at me as if my audacity had plucked away his wits.

"Why not?" I asked.

Mr. Barnett was thoroughly enjoying himself.

"Do you know what landed property is selling at, Mr. Greatorex?" he asked confidentially. "It is practically a drug in the market, sir, just now."

"Then," said I, "will you kindly explain, Mr. Barnett, how it comes that I have had two offers within a week of my inheritance?"

"Ah," he said meditatively, rubbing his chin.

"It looks as if this particular property was not a drug in the market, doesn't it?" I asked.

"To be sure," he remarked vaguely, and then, recovering himself, resumed his gentle smile. "But let us come back to business, Mr. Greatorex. Shall we say £5,000?"

He cooed at me enticingly. His assumption that we had wandered into prospect! Really, now that I have seen it, Mr. Greatorex, I feel justified in advising my client to go a little higher."

"I think the view is worth an extra £5,000," I suggested.

"I think he might rise possibly to £15,000. Mr. Greatorex, if you will allow me to communicate with my client," he said softly. "But my client is a poor man, and it is a ruinous price."

"Then why ruin your client, my dear sir?" said I.

Mr. Barnett laughed pleasantly, as if at my little joke, but, becoming serious again, shook his head.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

I have little doubt that you can manage anything," I said, bowing.

"You agree?" he asked.

"It is not necessary," said I, "I seem to have agreed for me."

"It is monstrous!" he said gloomily.

"But my client has set his heart on it. You shall have your £20,000, Mr. Greatorex."

He sighed resignedly and, having selected a document in his pocketbook, proceeded to unfold it and smooth it upon the table. All the spirit was out of him. He had been worsted and owed me a grudge, I could perceive.

"If you have a pen, Mr. Greatorex," he said sullenly, "I will fill in the figures. I have the agreement here."

"Pardon me," said I.

He looked up and, meeting my gaze, offered an explanation against my protest. "There's no time like the present."

"Excuse me; no," I said. "Your client, Mr. Barnett, did me the honor to suppose I should be willing to sell, and I was polite enough to suppose so with him."

"You misunderstand me, sir," I said cheerfully. "I have no intention of selling the castle."

He leaped to his feet. "What?" he yelled, and his sallow face spread with color. "You said £20,000?"

"Excuse me; no," I said. "Your client, Mr. Barnett, did me the honor to suppose I should be willing to sell, and I was polite enough to suppose so with him."

"You have frightened my fish, sir," said he.

GOOD WORK

Done Daily in Paducah—Many Citizens Tell of It.

Nearly every reader has heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their good work in Paducah still continues, and our citizens are constantly adding endorsements by public testimony. No better proof of merit can be had than the experience of friends and neighbors. Read this case:

Mrs. George Romant, of 726 Tennessee street, says: "For three years my back was lame and ached severely, particularly under the shoulder blades, despite the use of medicines. I tried Doan's Kidney Pills, getting them at Alvey & List's drug store. They are easy to take, they cure you without causing any annoyance, and if I can judge from my present condition, when they cure you stay cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.

Esquimos Said to Suffer.

London, Dec. 20.—George Cleveland, a native of Massachusetts, who was in charge of a whaling station on the northern limits of Hudson bay, and who was compelled to live with the Eskimos, his boat being burned, says that something ought to be done for the Eskimos. Interviewed upon this topic he said:

"Something ought to be done to relieve the terrible privations of the natives. In the long winter they are on the verge of starvation. Yet at little cost, companies trading with the Arctic regions could provide sufficient fish to last the people through the winter. On some of the islands where trading stations are established all the natives are killed for the skins and the natives are dying of hunger."

Heart Fluttering.

Undigested food and gas in the stomach, located just below the heart, presses against it and causes heart palpitation. When your heart troubles you in that way take Herbin for a few days. You will soon be all right, 50c a bottle. Sold by Alvey & List's drug store.
